"We cannot put into words the true thanks we want to express to all at the g Hotel for everything they have organised for our party of 140 guests during the Volvo Ocean Race. The organisation was seamless, the unending support, advice and suggestion offered has not been matched by any other hotel with whom we have worked in Ireland or further afield. It is without doubt that we will return."

Amanda Hiatt Marketing Director, Volvo Trucks UK & Ireland

"We found the standard of service and professionalism exceptional and we look forward to working with the g in the future."

Margaret Tierney Project Development Manager, Console

"We have always found the g Hotel to be extremely professional in catering for both our corporate and entertainment requirements. The location, facilities and attention to detail are second to none. From the excellent boardrooms to the eloquent dining rooms and personable atmosphere all your needs are catered for."

Deirdre Earls ACC Bank

Galway is a dynamic city located in the West of Ireland. Surrounded by beautiful Galway Bay, it is the third largest city in the country. Galway is a multicultural hub with a strong entrepreneurial and business spirit and home to a large number of international companies in the biomedical, IT and pharmaceutical sectors.

Galway is known as Ireland's cultural heart and is celebrated for its numerous festivals throughout the year. Minutes away from Galway's centre, the g is perfectly situated to discover the city's excellent shops, theatres, restaurants and lively night life.
